Elders Note

I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge - that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Ephesians 3: 16-20

Healthcare Corner

Eat without distractions.

For most of us, mealtime is spent multi-tasking. We mindlessly munch on chips while scanning Facebook or inhale a plate of pasta while watching Netflix. Mindful eating is the opposite.

It's the practice of paying full attention to the eating experience: recognizing your hunger and fullness cues, noticing your emotions, observing the aromas, flavors, and textures of the foods. When you eat mindfully, you naturally slow down, eat less, and enjoy improved digestion. The first step toward becoming a mindful eater is to remove distractions, so close your laptop, put away your phone, shut off the TV, and turn your full attention to the food in front of you.

DORCAS

We have tied and finished another quilt.
Thanks to everyone for all of our patience with me.
I have never felt so loved and cared for.
Thank you to Pastor and Carole for the wonderful funeral and the graveside service. It meant a lot to me.

God Bless you all,
Judy

Youth

Good morning everyone,

I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to our extended family for your incredible support of both the raffle and bake sale during the car show. Your generosity and enthusiasm have been overwhelming. We are truly grateful for your commitment to supporting the Youth Program.

As Scripture reminds us:

"As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." 1 Peter 4:10

Your kindness, support, and willingness to give have truly reflected this spirit of service and fellowship.

We are also excited to announce the raffle winners:

Grand Prize - YETI Backpack Cooler: Jim Helms

PM Reach Model: Pat Balcom

Bravely Products: Stephen Vossler

Knitted Blanket: Sandy Vossler

Thank you again to everyone who participated, donated, and helped make this event such a success. Your continued support makes a meaningful difference in the lives of our youth.

Congratulations to all of our winners!

Kate Lamberson
